2010 FringeNYC Award Winning Solo Show
MISS MAGNOLIA BEAUMONT GOES TO PROVINCETOWN
Comes to the Cincinnati Fringe Festival

Critically acclaimed, award-winning solo play Miss Magnolia Beaumont Goes to Provincetown, written and performed by Joe Hutcheson, will be participating in the 2011 Cincinnati Fringe Festival, May 31st through June 12th. Miss Magnolia Beaumont Goes to Provincetown appeared last year in the New York International Fringe Festival, receiving critical acclaim and a FringeNYC Overall Excellence Award for its run at the Studio @ Cherry Lane Theatre.

Civil War era Southern debutante Miss Magnolia Beatrice Devareux Beaumont has choked to death on the meat of a pork rib, only to find herself suddenly inhabiting the body of a thirty-something gay New Yorker (to whom she refers as Master Joseph) on his way to Provincetown, Massachusetts for a birthday vacation. But before Miss Beaumont can quietly get used to Master Joseph's cosmopolitan gay lifestyle, an offensive painting suddenly jolts her into his awareness. After the initial shock and a few disagreements, the two spend the rest of their trip discussing the deeper meanings of life, why they were brought together, and why a simple kite can be such a magical thing. More than a monologue, Miss Magnolia Beaumont Goes to Provincetown is a modern comic fantasy celebrating the beauty and magic of Provincetown.

"Original, inventive, as touching as it is funny, this 90-minute one-man show is rich, wise, and deeply human."
- Backstage.com (Critic's Pick)

"Hutcheson is a marvelous storyteller."
- Stagebuzz.com

"...Miss Magnolia Beaumont Goes to Provincetown is terrific: Not just a one-man show, but a fully realized theatrical story..."
- nytheatre.com

"...one of the nicest surprises of the year for me."
- Martin Denton, Memorable Highlights of the Theatre Season

"A fierce and funny fable."
- Next Magazine

"Hutcheson delves into both main characters, and a handful of others, with precision and passion."
- Theatre Is Easy (theasy.com - Best Bet)
