Final vote—33 for, 29 against N.Y. State YES to Gay Marriage

New York State is now the sixth state with legal Gay and Lesbian (G/L) Marriage.

The final vote came during Gay PRIDE Month in the state where the Gay Rights Movement began.

The same-sex marriage bill was approved in a 33 to 29 vote. Four Republicans voted for the bill along with 39 Democrats.

Forty-one states ban G/L Marriage but more than half of U.S. citizens now favor G/L Marriage.
